The Exposition.

The Finance Committee of the Exposition Board met at Greenwood Hall yesterdey, when Mr. Pendleton reported $300 more collected as a subscription. Colonel on then stated that there were now about $2,000 subscribed for the Exposition this year; that $25,000 will be given by the different railroad companies, $25,000 from the Natural History Society, and $10,000 from the brewers. This would make $85,-600 already guaranteed. In view of this fact the Committee decided to discuss the subject of plans for the building at their

The Aldines.

One of the most elegant masque balls of the season was given last evening by the Aldines, at Mozart Hall. The floor was crowded with merry masquers, for they could not be otherwise than merry, as Mcssrs. E. E. Clark, M. T. Heyker, G. W. Clark and H. E. Peter, of the Aldines, excited themselves in making all enjoy themselves. Among the most notable of the costumes were the "Two Orphans," Right Morning "Columbia" etc.

THE DAILY STAR day yesterday and all night last night the patient line stood waiting for the sale to commence this morning. Fires Last Night.

About 7 o'clock last evening a fire broke out in the work-room on the third floor of the fur-house of P. Kalish, Sons & Co., No. 36 West Pearl street. An alarm was turned in from Box 26, and the flames were quickly extinguished upon the arrival of the engines, doing about $1,000 damage.

At 8:30 a lot of burning straw in the yard in the rear of No. 142 Richmond street, which had been set on fire by boys, was the cause of the alarm from Box 68. No damage and no need of the engines.

age and no need of the engines.

At midnight an alarm came in from Box 253, caused by the burning of an old one-story frame building, No. 64 Western avenue, and of the stable adjoining. The house belonged to August Volsmer, and contained some furniture, the property of George Rumpler, all of which was destroyed. The loss was about $600, which the Farmers' Insurance Company will make good.

A FIGHT FOR A PEW .- A singular pew case has occurred in Carleton, N. B., recently The regulations of the Methodist Church there require that the owner of a pew shall, when desiring to dispose of it, first offer it to the Trustees of the Church. Mr. Browne lately sold his pew to a Mr. Saunders with-out going through the above formality. The purchaser was allowed to hold the pew, paying the regular dues, until he neglected to occupy it. Then the Trustees tendered to him the price he paid for the pew, which was not accepted. Thereupon the Trustees leased it to one Clark. Saunders asserted his eight to the pew, and on coming to the morning service with his wife last Sunday, and finding the pew occupied by Clark, who refused him admittance, took off his coat and attempted to force an entrance. Mrs. Saunders clambered over the back of the pew and sat down, and Saunders tried to follow her example. The affair caused a great sensation in the church, and a woman fainted. Saunders was finally persuaded by the Trustees to retire, and at the door was arrested by a policeman. The matter was settled next day by the prisoner ac-cepting $30 for his right to the pew.—[To-

County, State of Ohio, case No. 53, 393.—The defendant, Thomas Farrell, who resides at Richmond, Wayne County, in the State of Indians, will take notice that the plaintiff, Catherrine Farrell, did, on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1877, file in said Court (cause No.
63,893) her petition for divorce, wherein she alleges among other things, that she has been for a year
last past and is now a bona fide resident of said County and State, that she was married to the defendant on the 19th day of April, 1886, and has almays conducted herself towards defendant as a faithful and dutiful wife, that the defendant disregarding his marisal duties, has been guilty of willful absence from plaintiff for more than seventeen years hast past, that said defendant has also been guilty of gross neglect of duty ever since his marriage with plaintiff, and that said defendant resides at Richmond, Wayne County, in the State of Indiana. The prayer of said petition is for divorce, and that plaintiff be restored to her former name of Catherine Calu.
Said cause will be for hearing on and after March 19th, 1878. McGARRY & KING
